
Summary

Mentorship and affirmative action academic advisor with 5 years of experience identifying promising underrepresented students and providing counseling support for them, thereby improving their college applications.

Education

Bachelor's Degree in Counseling

Zirkel College Los Angeles, California

Skills

Microsoft Word, Computer Skills, Teaching, Microsoft Office, Microsoft Excel, Communication Skills, Ellucian

Experience

Academic Advising

Academic Advisor - Los Angeles, California

07/2019 - Present

- Advised 8 first year students on course selection, degree requirements and career development
- Set up an alumni database for the university's career services department
- Provided career advice to over 50 students on resume writing, interviewing skills and position fit

Benjamin Franklin Community College

Academic Advisor - Los Angeles, California

03/2018

- Developed and facilitated the training of 8 new academic advisors in a highly efficient manner, resulting in an average of 1.5 new students per advisor trained
- Provided critical feedback on the student success rate of new graduates and helped train students to overcome their shortcomings
- Gave 5 A grade term papers for R&D Management courses
- Created an honors R&D Management program with an average of 20 students per term
- Developed a program for students to apply for internships at leading corporations
- Participated in a 15 month career development program for graduate students, mentoring up to 6 students per term in an internship program
- Created a mentorship program for undergraduates with an average of 12 new students per term to ensure they were connected with an academic advisor
- Developed a program for the advancement of R&D Management students through the completion of a dissertation

Braintech

Academic Advisor - Los Angeles, California

04/2016

- Directed multiple students to pursue their first-choice college & major
- Presented college resources to students and parents
- Provided assistance to students with their studies and provided peer support for lower academic levels
- Provided college recommendations and visited with 6 students on campus
- Developed a comprehensive course catalog for students
- Facilitated the application writing process for first-year students
- Attended and conducted presentations at school fairs, career days, recruiting fairs, career fairs and other college events.
- Provided college counseling services to over 600 students and parents

- Maintained a file of all student and parent communications